

FOBISIA Drama Code of Conduct for Staff and Students

Staff:

1. Please ensure that you meet all guidelines and deadlines set out by the hosting school when planning and preparing for your own school involvement in the festival.
2. Please inform any special requests not covered in the registration form regarding yourself or your students to the host prior to the festival.
3. We recommend that at least 1 male to 1 female ratio of staff to attend the festival with their students. Please ensure that all staff members attending the festival can either lead a workshop in Drama or can add creative value to company devising time.
4. Staff members will be assigned the role of either company leader or workshop leader.
5. We encourage company leaders to support but not fully direct the final performance pieces.
6. During social activities, it is important to supervise your group at all times.
7. Staff are fully in charge of students during any time at the hotel.

Students:

1. Students will remain well behaved throughout the duration of the festival.
2. Independence is encouraged when developing their devised piece so attend company time with lots of ideas.
3. Students will have read any pre-published resources relevant to their companies.
4. Students will follow the instructions of all members of staff present including the hosts at all times.
5. Students will wear clothing that is appropriate for educational and cultural events as specified by the host school. If in doubt, ask your teacher.
6. Students are responsible for any electrical devices that they choose to bring with them.
7. Meals and snacks will be provided during the festival by the hosting school.
